

FRONT PORCH EVENTS

Unless otherwise noted, all Front Porch Events are ticketed at $15 each.

JULY 1: Free Event: John Latsch: The Man and His River Frozen River Film Festival joins GRSF to screen this wonderful documentary about the legacy of a Winona native and his love of the Mississippi River. John Latsch will be paired with another FRFF film with discussion to follow.

JULY 8: Symposium: Telling Stories
Join us as we examine story forms as diverse as the opening statement at a trial, a historical narrative and hip hop poetry and ask: who do we hear, who do we believe and how do we construct a story?*

JULY 15: Kevin Kling
Best known for his commentaries on National Public Radio, Kevin Kling delivers hilarious, often tender autobiographical stories about growing up in Minnesota which are as enchanting as they are true to life.

JULY 22: Symposium: The War of the Roses
Conflict in the ruling elite tore England apart for 32 years. Join us as we explore how art and literature use the past to speak to the present.*

JULY 29: Free event: Maria W. Faust Sonnet Contest Hear the winning sonnets read by GRSF acting company members.

*Presented by Winona State University, the Symposia bring together scholars from different disciplines for an open discussion.
